WNS will enable Menzies Aviation to transform their financial activities by improving accuracy, efficiency, scalability, security, and process standardization, while reducing the cost of operations. The shared services model will leverage WNS' travel and logistics expertise, robust portfolio of F&A solutions, and differentiated automation capabilities.

"WNS is extremely proud to announce this strategic relationship with Menzies Aviation. Our extensive experience in the travel industry uniquely enables us to combine the power of domain, talent and technology to manage complex aviation operations and improve competitive positioning for our clients. We are excited to begin this journey with Menzies in the Finance & Accounting space, and look forward to expanding our relationship in the coming years," said Keshav R. Muruges, Group CEO, WNS.

"We are looking forward to sharing the benefits from partnering with WNS to help transform our global finance and accounting shared services. We see efficiency and cost effectiveness in the finance function as an important element of providing value to our customers throughout the world," said Alvaro Gomez-Reino, Group CFO, Menzies Aviation.
