TIME and market research company Statista collaborated to construct the 2025 list that evaluated shortlisted organizations, including WNS, on more than 20 key performance indicators.

For this second edition of the "World's Most Sustainable Companies", over 5,000 companies were assessed on sustainable business practices, commitments & ratings, reporting standards & transparency, and environmental & social stewardship to arrive at the final 500.

"We are honored to be featured in the 2025 TIME list of World's Most Sustainable Companies. This recognition underscores our continued commitment to creating lasting, sustainable value for all our stakeholders including clients, employees, investors, and the communities we serve," said Keshav R. Muruges, Group CEO, WNS.

Demonstrating its ongoing commitment to ethical and responsible business practices, WNS continues to drive continuous improvement in its sustainability efforts. WNS adheres to globally recognized frameworks including the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) and Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) standards to deliver holistic and credible sustainability reporting. As a long-standing signatory to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC), WNS aligns with the Ten Principles of the UNGC across human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption. WNS has also conducted a comprehensive global Climate Risk Assessment aligned with Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) and IFRS S2 standards, further integrating climate risk into its business strategy and company disclosures. Additionally, WNS has received validation of its Net-Zero emissions reduction targets by the Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi).

In 2024, WNS was awarded a Platinum Medal by EcoVadis for its sustainability programs, one of the highest distinctions in global business sustainability assessments. In addition, WNS has been included in the Dow Jones Best-in-Class Emerging Markets Index in 2024 and received top sustainability scores by several key sustainability rating institutions.
