Company launches delivery center in Costa Rica

San Jose, Costa Rica – November 16, 2009 – WNS (Holdings) Limited (NYSE: WNS), a leading provider of global business process outsourcing (BPO) services, today announced the launch of its delivery center in San Jose, Costa Rica.

While the establishment of the Costa Rica center marks WNS's entry into Latin America, it will also serve as a nearshore center for global clients with North American operations. The center is able to provide multi-lingual services in English and Spanish and will provide the complete suite of WNS services including finance and accounting (F&A), customer service and research and analytics.

"Our expansion into Costa Rica is a key step in expanding our global footprint and providing comprehensive, integrated solutions to our clients," said Anup Gupta, Group Chief Operating Officer, WNS Global Services. "Our global delivery model enables us to improve our clients' business by combining the right combination of geographic location with process transformation."

Steve Reynolds, Managing Director – North America, WNS added, "As a location, Costa Rica provides a strong combination of language skills and talent, while still providing a competitive advantage for clients operating in the Americas. Language capability is a key delivery component for those who are increasingly looking to benefit from global delivery models."
