

WNS Renews Contract With Sabre Holdings

January 4, 2010

MUMBAI, INDIA, Jan 04, 2010 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) -- WNS (Holdings) Limited (NYSE: WNS), a leading provider of global business process outsourcing (BPO) services, today announced that it has renewed its contract with Sabre Holdings, the world's largest travel distribution and technology company. WNS will continue to provide comprehensive front, middle and back office services to Sabre Holdings and its affiliates including Travelocity.

The contract renewal extends the strategic relationship between Sabre and WNS through December 2015. Under the terms of the renewal, while Sabre will not provide any minimum volume commitments, WNS shall be the exclusive provider of certain key services from delivery locations outside of the U.S., including customer service and ticketing support for Travelocity.com in North America, and accounting and fraud prevention services for Sabre.

"The renewal of our contract with Sabre underscores the quality of our domain capabilities, our value-add to the business, and the strength of relationship between the two companies," said Anup Gupta, Group Chief Operating Officer. "We look forward to continuing our strong partnership."
