services across a wide range of vertical industries.

"Increasing our delivery footprint is critical to providing our global clients with a combination of onshore, near-shore and offshore capabilities. The Gdynia center will allow WNS to capitalize on a skilled work force with multi-lingual capabilities, and will complement our existing delivery locations in Romania and United Kingdom," said Keshav R. Murugesh.

Driven by demand from both existing and prospective clients, WNS expects the Gdynia center to formally open during the company's fiscal second quarter of 2013.
