

WNS Enters the World Economic Forum's List of Fastest-Growing 'Global Growth Companies'

October 4, 2013

NEW YORK & MUMBAI, India--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 4, 2013-- WNS (Holdings) Limited (WNS) (NYSE: WNS), a leading provider of global Business Process Outsourcing \(BPO\) services, has been inducted into the World Economic Forum's (WEF) latest list of the fastest-growing 'Global Growth Companies' (GGC). At this year's annual meeting of the new champions in Dalian, China, WNS was included in the coveted list of GGCs for demonstrating key features characteristic of a Global Growth Company including:

- Consistent annual growth rates exceeding industry and regional averages
- Minimum turnover
- Demonstrated growth potential
- Capacity and intent to build a global business
- Exemplary executive leadership

"Being included in the World Economic Forum's Global Growth Companies (GGC) list comes as a significant honor for WNS. As a business, we have invested our resources, energies and strategies to build a high-growth organization. Our inclusion in the GGC list is a solid endorsement of our commitment to employing disruptive technologies, high-end analytics and business process solutions to help clients outperform in their respective markets," said Keshav R. Muruges, CEO, WNS Global Services.

The World Economic Forum's community of GGC was formed in 2007 to engage dynamic high-growth companies with the potential to be tomorrow's industry leaders and to become a driving force of economic and social change. Global Growth Company Partners are among the most influential and successful companies within their industries. These companies are well respected in their home markets and have grown successfully beyond their borders since their inception. At this year's 'Summer Davos' meet, the Annual Meeting of the New Champions the Forum welcomed 76 new members from 26 countries and five continents to its GGC community.
