

WNS Wins the 2013 Golden Peacock Global Award for Corporate Social Responsibility

January 23, 2014

MUMBAI, India--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 23, 2014--

WNS (Holdings) Limited (NYSE: WNS), a leading provider of global Business Process Management (BPM) services, has been recognized with the prestigious Golden Peacock Global Award for Corporate Social Responsibility for the second consecutive year. WNS received this award for its ongoing 'Community Development and Outreach Program', under the auspices of the WNS Cares Foundation (WCF).

WNS strives to create a better and sustainable future for underprivileged children and youth at its locations across the globe through WCF. Since its inception in 2011, WCF has helped "Educate, Empower, and Enrich" more than 38,000 children across 57 schools and 20 locations. The foundation has rolled out many impactful programs, including the establishment of libraries and computer centers; book, dictionary and laptop donation drives; reading programs; sports activities; and e-mentoring programs.

"WNS has won this esteemed award for the second year in a row, reflecting our ongoing commitment to Corporate Social Responsibility. This recognition is a result of the dedicated efforts of the entire WNS family towards achieving our mission," said Keshav R. Murugesh, Group CEO, WNS. "Among our many other activities, 'Mobile Library' is one of the most recent and unique initiatives. Through this program, we will work to ensure that underprivileged children get a chance to learn and read even if he / she cannot afford to attend a school. We have piloted this program in a few localities of Mumbai, India, and intend to globalize this initiative soon," he added.

Globally, the Golden Peacock Awards for Corporate Social Responsibility are given to organizations that effectively manage social and environmental concerns in addition to economic goals, and are able to balance financial profits, economic value addition and social good.
